

The Long Road

FUNKY SNOOPY

Funky Snoopy playin' Joe Cool a little loopy by the swimming pool along come boys made of green those boys ain't what they seem One two three and it's up in smoke they think they're bad, but then they choke mommy's boys in expensive clothes wrong look that comes to blows I been up and I been down But still I'm here and I'm standing my ground Years gone by I ain't lost my fight Keep on into the night Rob me blind till there's nothing left still it's just a petty theft these boys ain't got no soul that's the wise man's gold

ROCK MY SOUL

Losing my mind in front of the TV screen you know I'm caught in-between the colors of Red and Blue-do you know what I mean when I say I need to scream?- a change is overdue

My Job got me running this way and that feeling like a laboratory rat and I been spinning my wheels; somewhere between alive and dead

I hear the voices in my head say "this must be how a zombie feels"

Rock my soul right through my bones make me alive, don't want to drive alone
rock my soul right through my bones
got to revive I know my life's on loan

You can have riches and you can have fame you can play the game but not even see the goal... well then it's time to wake up your body and mind see where you are blind get out of the hole!

Ain't no armageddon ain't no end of days life's just a bloody, muddy haze you need to get in the zone. but there can come a time you hit a wall and get the wake up call the future's made of clay, not of stone!
Rock my soul right through my bones
make me alive don't want to drive alone
rock my soul right through my bones

CRAZY TONIGHT

I love your wild side I want to cross some other-worldly divide let's strip ourselves bare til' there's nothing to hide Sure we're safe and secure but don't you feel confined? if I don't break free then I'll surely lose my mind Let's just get a little crazy tonight take to the sky like a phoenix in flight let's get crazy tonight Let's start a revolution against the things that burn and burden our soul there's a simple solution just for tonight let's lose control Try to live life clean but still it's a dirty mess let's get insane and infect the world with happiness Let's just get a little crazy tonight

BLUE IN YOUR SKY

Lifts me up when you are near let's fly together through the atmosphere pick up a brush and paint a masterpiece and start again before the canvas is dry Baby I could be the blue in your sky and I will love you till the day I die Some colors fade right away just like some love don't last but a day in a world of broken promises I'll tell you one thing and it ain't no lie Baby I could be the blue in your sky
and I will love you till the day I die
I could be the blue in your sky I could be the tears in your eye give you my heart and my soul everything money can't buy
I could be the blue in your sky
And I will love you till the day I die

INNOCENT MAN

There ain't no reason or no rhyme I been convicted but committed no crime lift the veil of grey up out and away they held a trial by my peers but the prosecution played on their fears justice lost the day, up out and away They say the truth will set you free but here I am locked up I am an innocent man I wasn't driving that van I hope that someone finds out down the line I'm getting ready for a long hard climb watching the day go up out and away so I'm sitting here making a plan because I know I am an innocent man no more to say up out and away I ain't got no reason for this rhyme I'm just sitting in my cell and killing time until my rescue day... up out and away

DON'T LET THEM TELL YOU WHO YOU ARE

They can tame a horse, name the earth and stars even own the songs from your guitar Some want to rule you like a Russian czar, but don't let them tell you who you are They'll try and sell you like a used car then leave you melting in the tar they'll cash you in while they smoke a cigar; don't let them sell you who you are There are things you learn from someone else you didn't know about yourself this good advice is worth more than gold never let them sell your soul They may make you feel like an alien from Mars you haven't left the earth so far listen now

It may sound bizzare
don't let them tell you who you are There are things you'll learn from someone else you didn't know about yourself
just never let them take your soul For all your pain you're right on par you're not the only one with scars they'd just as soon stuff you in a jar
don't let them tell you who you are
don't let them tell you who you are

LONG ROAD HOME

Well I bought a ticket to a land I found ain't even there and I have to admit that I've been runnin scared people talkin' to me in a language I can't speak where every stranger stares at me like I'm some sort of freak I learn my lessons on the way yes it's been another day on the Long Road Home
on the Long Road Home Well I'm livin' on the outside but I'm tryin to get on in try to live a good life but keep fallin into sin I'm stranded in the desert following a distant star but it's hard to know where you're goin' when you don't know where you are
I learn my lessons on the way

LOOKOUT

This can be a dangerous place many will desert got to keep up the pace ready to sound the alert life it ain't nothing if not searching for the signs and I'm sure that we must watch for something coming down the line Be my eyes
when dark skies cloud my sight stand by my side
will you be my lookout tonight The storm is getting fierce the wind and rain attack I need someone I trust who can watch my back confusion to the east disorder to the west the north and South are sure to put us to the test
stand by my side

SWEETEST POISON

You say that you love me even if it ain't true either way I'm a junkie when it comes to you life is toxic sometimes you can choose your poison there are all kinds no remedy could make this right how could such pain be such delight You're the sweetest poison that I've been fed just one taste of you and I'm turnin red but I don't care cause you're the sweetest poison Did you come from Eden with that deadly fruit the venom goes down slowly to the root tastes like honey wine but I should have left it hanging on the vine it feels so good but I know it's bad it's enough to drive you mad

CAROLINE

A drop of rain from a stormy cloud of joy a potion that heals or a poison that destroys From head to feet
she's bitter sweet
can't seem to get enough she gives she takes each heart she breaks
is just the price of love Hey Caroline I can't seem to get you off my mind hey Caroline how can you be so cruel then so kind?
Can't figure which - is she scared to the bone, or a brazen bitch who left me standing in the cold?
From head to feet
she's bitter sweet
she gives she takes
is just the price of love
hey Caroline how can you be so cruel then so kind?

NIGHTWAVES

How they love the noise those twenty something girls and boys every night you see them at the raves we came to see a show that's underneath the moon glow so we sit and listen to the Nightwaves Nightwaves

Nightwaves

Nightwaves

The world's a symphony our love's the melody that plays on even after daylight fades under a satin sky it's too soon to say Goodbye so we sit and listen to the Nightwaves

Nightwaves

Nightwaves

Nightwaves
